The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, OCTOBER 19TH, 1908.

THERE has been no event in England in recent times of greater significance than the holding of the Eucharistic Congress in London. The growth of Roman Catholicism in England during the last half century has been enormous. Froude, the historian, in one of his Essays recalls that in his boyhood the Roman Catholic religion hung about a few ancient English families like a ghost of the past. "They preserved their creed as an heirloom which tradition rather than conviction made sacred to them. A convert from Protestantism to Popery would have been at great risk as a convert to Buddhism or Odin." In the course of a single century what a change has been effected! Not only in England is this the case. While the influence and power of the Roman Church has been perceptibly weakening in countries which had long been exclusively her own, it has been steadily rising in the countries which have constituted the stronghold of Protestantism in Europe. Such a striking manifestation of the revival of Romanism as the holding of a Eucharistic Congress in London must have set most thoughtful minds speculating not only as to the causes which have produced, so remarkable a change, but also upon the final significance of the movement. These are questions, however, which in a single article can only be briefly touched upon. We can here only suggest that the causes may be found, on the one hand, in the growth of a materialistic philosophy breathing a spirit of indifference to all religious forms and ceremonies, and on the other to that increasing love of ritual in the Church of England which brings it daily into closer affinity with the Church of Rome. For good or ill, the advance of Roman Catholicism in England is destined to continue. There has been no great ebullition of nations' feeling over the holding of the Eucharistic Congress such as might have been expected perhaps, when we remember our English history, and the confidence of the Pope in British tolerance has been fully justified. Had the authorities in charge of the Congress arrangements not committed an error of judgment in arranging for a procession of the Host through the streets adjoining the Roman Cathedral at Westminster, contrary to the provisions of the Emancipation Act of 1829, the world might have been left in some doubt as to whether Protestantism had not coaxed to be a force to be reckoned with in England. Froude, in the Essay to which allusion has already been made warned the English people that "Catholicism has learnt nothing and forgotten nothing. It is tolerant now because its strength is broken. It has been fighting for bare existence and its demands at present are satisfied with fair play. But let it (he says) have a numerical majority behind it and it will reclaim its old authority. It will again insist on controlling all departments of knowledge. The principles on which it persecuted it still professes, and persecution will grow again as naturally and necessarily as a seed in a congenial soil. Then it will once more come in collision with the secular intelligence which now passes by it with disdain. The struggle ended in blood before, and it will end in blood again, with further results not difficult to anticipate."

It is noteworthy that there appears to have been an entire absence of any such forbodings in the comments on the Congress which have appeared in the great organs of British public opinion which may be said to represent what the historian calls the "secular intelligence." While it is true that since Froude published this impressive warning the revival of Romanism in England has made astonishing progress, we are inclined to believe that the essential principles of the Reformation are so deeply rooted in England as to make the prospect of any conflict of the Roman Catholic Church with the secular intelligence extremely remote.

We are pleased to learn that Captain Mitchell Taylor, who underwent an operation at the Peak Hospital for appendicitis, is progressing satisfactorily.

Japan papers report that there is consternation everywhere in Japan over the prohibition of the pari-mutuel at race meetings.

The name of Dr. H. S. Bennett has been added to the list of medical and surgical practitioners qualified to practise medicine and surgery in this Colony.

The post-mortem examination of the remains of Captain A. Renaud, of the dredger engaged in the Conservancy works at Shanghai, revealed no trace of arsenic poisoning.

Japan's consent in principle to China's proposal for the prohibition of the import of morphine and morphine instruments is to be shortly communicated by the Japanese Legation to the Wai-wu-pu.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint Sergeant L. C. Reed and Mr. William Russell to be 2nd Lieutenant in the No. 2 Artillery Company and the Engineer Company, Hongkong Volunteer Corps, respectively, with effect from the 2nd instant, and Company Sergeant Major J. J. Andrew to be a 2nd Lieutenant in the same Corps, with effect from the 12th instant.

A case of accidental death was reported to the police on Friday. The secondary wife of a Chinese residing at Aberdeen Street, who was suffering from a severe cold, bought a bottle of cough mixture, and at the same time purchased another bottle of disinfectant. The bottles were much alike, and by mistake she took a dose out of the wrong one, death occurring shortly afterwards.

The Gazette announces that copies of the regulations, syllabus of examination and form of application for candidates desirous of entering the examination for appointment in the civil service of India, for Eastern priesthood, or for clerkships in the Home civil service, can be obtained at the Colonial Secretary's office. The examination will be held in London in August of next year.

His Excellency the Governor has given his assent, in the name and on behalf of His Majesty the King, to the following Ordinances passed by the Legislative Council:—Ordinance No. 17 of 1908.—An Ordinance to apply a sum not exceeding five million five hundred and seventy thousand four hundred and twenty-seven dollars to the Public Service of the year 1908; and to Ordinance No. 18 of 1908.—An Ordinance for regulating theatres and other places of public resort.

From the circular we send out with this edition of the Daily Press, it will be seen that Dr. Lamb, the American occultist and apotropaist, who has an office at the King Edward Hotel (anonymously), has concluded to extend his stay in Hongkong till the 25th inst. Those who have trouble with their eyes or are afflicted with impaired vision should read his announcement and avail themselves of the opportunity of consulting him while he is here, for his facilities for examining the eyes and applying defective vision are such as are found only in the offices of the best occultists abroad.

TOKYO, October 17th.
The "Kotuman" (newspaper) has received a wireless message stating that the American Fleet encountered a very severe gale north of Luzon on the morning of the 12th inst.

The lifeboats of three battleships were carried away and a gunner of the "Rhode Island" was washed overboard.

Two bluejackets, who were wearing lifebelts, were also washed overboard.

On the afternoon of the 14th the sea calmed down.

On the night of the 15th Admiral Saito was able to get in touch with the Fleet by wireless telegraphy and extended to them a welcome to Japan which Admiral Sperry acknowledged.

TOKYO, October 18th.

The first day of the reception of the American visitors closed with great success. The Fleet arrived at 9.30 and was escorted by the battleship "Soya" and a flotilla of destroyers.

The Fleet was welcomed to unprecedented enthusiasm. Yokohama was alive with hundreds of thousands of people, the streets were ablaze with colour, flags were exhibited in great profusion, and innumerable triumphal arches were erected.

Admiral Sperry visited the "Mi-kasa" at 10.30 and warmly shook hands with Admiral Ijuin amid the booming of cannon and the music of the bands.

The brilliant sunshine contributed much to the day's success.

Just before the war with Russia he was serving his country as Inspector-General of Education. He commanded the Fourth Army corps in the late war.]

[REUTER'S SERVICE]

THE EUROPEAN SITUATION.

LONDON, October 18th.
Turkey in a note to the Powers draws their attention to the military activity of Bulgaria and warns them that if Bulgaria persists in her attitude she will be reluctantly compelled to take precautionary measures, declining the responsibility of a conflict.

Replying to the address in the Montenegrin Parliament, the speaker in referring to Servian affairs said that the time had come for Servia and Montenegro to raise a common standard in defence of Serb ideals, and to join forces in a holy war. Germany and Austria in renewed representations to Bulgaria declare that the latter must obtain the consent of the Porte before settling claims in the matter of the Oriental railway dispute.

LATER.

M. Isvolsky, Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, who has had daily prolonged conferences with Sir Edward Grey, has agreed that the question of the Dardanelles shall be arranged separately between Turkey and Russia with the benevolent assistance of Great Britain and France. Some compensation will probably be given to Servia in the form of a guarantee of territory, and admission to the Danube commission.

Great Britain, France, and Russia have agreed to submit a programme to a conference of the Powers, replacing the articles of the treaty of Berlin, by new clauses recognizing the annexation of Bosnia, Herzegovina and Crete, the independence of Bulgaria, and Greece towards Turkey in respect of Roumelia and Crete. The articles concerning Montenegro are to be replaced by a single clause removing all restrictions imposed on that Principality, the rights of the Danubian river States enlarged, and a declaration made in favour of abolishing the capitulations of foreign Post Offices in Turkey when the constitutional reforms shall have been introduced.

The question of the Dardanelles is to be referred for negotiation between Russia and Turkey, on the basis of the right of passage of warships accorded to Russia being also granted to any other Power at war with Russia.

A Foreign Office communiqué, confirming the above, adds that Sir Edward Grey and M. Isvolsky also discussed subjects arising out of the Anglo-Russian Convention without complete identity of views was established, giving promise of a continuance of harmonious cooperation in the settlement of Central Asia questions.

A loan of fifty millions sterling is proposed, and of this sum thirty-two millions are to be devoted to the consolidation of the floating debt.

The loan is expected to be issued in London in a few weeks.

THE STEAM LAUNDRY CO., LTD.

The sixth ordinary general meeting of the shareholders in this Company was held at the office of Sir Paul Chater on Saturday afternoon. Mr. W. Hutton Potts presided, other shareholders present being Sir Paul Chater (director), Messrs. E. J. Chapman (secretary), P. C. Potts, A. H. Silva and Mak Fuk.

The SECRETARY read the notice convening the meeting.

The CHAIRMAN said—Gentlemen:—With your permission we will take the report and accounts as read. The profit on working account, though only some $337.72 better than last year, is satisfactory considering the depressed state of all business in the Colony. In the early part of the year under review we had expected to show a balance of $3,000 more but our earnings have fallen off owing to the smaller receipts from shipping and the hotels. Private washing is about the same as last year. The buildings did not suffer very severely in the typhoon of 27th July, and the damage done has not cost more than about $300 to repair. Considering the enormous amount of damage done to property generally we think the Laundry was fortunate in getting off so cheaply. Now that our fixed assets will be reduced by the proposed writing off of $2,357.35 to some $4,000, below the capital subscribed, we think that in future it will not be necessary to write off so largely, and, if returns keep up, we should be able to pay large dividends in future. Of course the actual depreciation of the machinery will have to be provided for. I shall be pleased to answer any questions to the best of my ability.

No questions were asked, and the CHAIRMAN proposed the adoption of the report and accounts as presented.

Mr. P. C. Potts seconded, and the motion was carried unanimously.

On the motion of Mr. P. C. Potts, seconded by Mr. Silva, Sir Paul Chater was re-elected to the directorate.

Mr. A. O'D. Gourdin was re-elected auditor by Mr. Mak Fuk, seconded by Mr. Silva.

The CHAIRMAN—That is all the business gentlemen. Dividend warrants will be ready on application on Monday. Thank you for your attendance.
